BARGAIN SATURDAY. 1/3 Off All Men's Fancy Suits.

Our legitimate, honest "ONE-THIRD OFF SALE" stands out boldly in contrast to offerings of others. One-third off Eiseman's regular prices has a different meaning than when applied usually, and you know it, for our regular prices are clearly one-third lower than others'.

Of course, the Eiseman guarantee goes with every garment.

1/3 Off Boys' and Child's Suits

-without reserve-the fancy effect-the plain blues and blackseven the serges are included, and you know it's out of the usual for any clothier to cut them as staple as they are.

Always Strong Attractions Hereon Saturday!

-and strongest of the season now-when the favoring winds of trade are bearing the surpluses from the makers to us at fractional costs. We only godinto details of the more important. But the whole store is alive with special opportunities.

Boys' Blue Serge Suits, $2.69 this selling price we have had made up every yard of Washington mills serge our maker owns.

About 200 Suits—they are Double Breasted, with Knee Pants—made and trimmed in exact counterpart of those that sold for a third and a half more earlier in the season. Guaranteed all wool and fast color; taped seams and patent bands. Lot of Wash Sallor Suits, taken from our own stock of $2.50, $3 and $3.50 grades—because they are a little soiled. Of course the sizes are broken—but there's every size represented among them all from 3 to 12 years. REDUCED to DSC.

10 dozen Wash Sallor Sults, in three different patterns; with combination shields, cuffs and collars; very natty effects and especially well made; some are worth 69c, and others 75c. 39c. Lot of Boys' Wash Sailor Suits, in striped effects, with large sailor collars; seams strongly sewed; correct cut to fit; 19c. 25 dozen Boys' Wash Knee Pants; Brown and Gray Crash; made for wear—and better than usually sold for 29c. All sizes, 15c.

Rare Bits in Men's Furnishings.

They are not large lots-so they cannot hold out long. But they are excessively big values. Always in touch with the men's needshere we overthrow all precedent-and offering gigantic specials-reckoned by worth and price.

Men's Silk Underwear, in Lavender, Pink and Bine; both Shirts and Drawers; regular value, $1.50 a garment— Special. Percale Neglige Shirts, with collars and cuffs attached, and others with only the cuffs—you'll like the patterns, and 27c. Look at this-Summer Suspenders-strong if they are SC.

Last Day of the Warning! Men's $5.50 Suit Sale.

Out of our necessities come your greatest privileges. We had too many Fancy and Mixed Cheviot, Cassimere and Worsted Suits in the $7.50, $8.50 and $9.50 grades—and a few too many Plain Blue Serges and Cheviots. That's why we have cut the prices to $5.50 The Suit.

What a difference between the sales for effect—loaded with Suits bought for the purpose—and THIS SALE—of Suits that from loom to presser's iron have received the highest degree of expert treatment—Suits that are worth in comparison with all others' more than they were marked. If we would carry stock from season to season you couldn't enjoy such a bargain. Tomorrow is the LAST DAY. There's a good choice to be taken even if it is.

This Most Remarkable Shoe Sale.

FATAL FALL.

Mrs. Mahala Adams Dies From Acci-dental Injuries.

Mrs. Mahala Adams, eighty years old, a former resident of Rehoboth, Loudoun former resident of Rehoboth, Loudoun county, Va., fell down stairs at her home, No. 163 2d street northeast, about 1 o'clock this morning and received injuries from which she died about two hours later. How the accident happened is not known. The noise of her fall aroused her daughter, Miss Jennie Adams, who found her mother lying at the foot of the steps. There was an ugly cut in the back of her head and she was unconscious. Miss Adams called two sisters who live in the house, and Dr. George T. Prewitt, who also resides in the house, was also summoned to attend the dying woman. He worked on the patient until death claimed her, but was unable to restore her to consciousness. Mrs. Adams was in excellent health and strength for her age. She occupied a room on the second floor, and it is believed that she was on her way to or from the bath room at her age. She occupied a room on the second floor, and it is believed that she was on her way to or from the bath room at the time the fatal accident occurred. In order to reach the bath room it was necessary for the elderly woman to pass the head of the stairs. It is believed that she failed to keep near the wall in the hall and in this way missed her footing and fell headlong to the floor below. Besides the scalp wound there was an injury to the left eye. The deceased, who was a native of Virginia, came to this city about nine years ago, shortly after the death of her husband, William H. Adams, who was a prominent citizen of Loudoun county. She lived at the house on 2d street with her three daughters, Misses Jennie and Rose Adams and Mrs. Susan Spring. She had two sons, George W. Adams, who lives in Loudoun county, and J. F. Adams, who is in business in San Jose, Cal. The Rev. John F. Heisse of Wesley Chapel will conduct funeral services at the house at noon tomorrow and the body will be taken to Rehoboth, where it will be interred Sunday morning.

PENNSYLVANIA ASSOCIATION.

Republicans Listen to Predictions of Success in November. Rev. Dr. Robert Nourse of Falls Church a., addressed a meeting of the Pennsylrania Republican Association at 719 6th street northwest last evening. Dr. Nourse was formerly a Congregational minister. The speaker said the United States had never been so prosperous as under President McKinley. "He is a grand and noble leader," he said. "The democrats say that 16 to 1 is to be a cure for our prosperity. Scarcely a democrat in the country knows what 16 to 1 means. It is more than doubted whether any one believes in that plank in the democratic platform. It is the only plank that Mr. Bryan insisted should go into the platform, and by his act he made that issue the paramount one. Smooth it that issue the paramount one. Smooth it over as they will, the democratic policy means financial immorality. The democratic platform denounces trusts. It is not sincere in this denunciation, and the party will yet have to explain the New York ice trust, by which Croker, Van Wyck and other democratic leaders made the poor ray 60 cents a hundred pounds for ice."

pay 60 cents a hundred pounds for ice."

Dr. Nourse declared that Oom Paul was one of the greatest imperialists of the time.
"The greatest imperialist of them all, however," continued the speaker, "is the however," continued the speaker, "is the man who four years ago dominated the democratic convention by his presence and this year dominated the convention by his absence. He is filled with the very spirit of imperialism. Mr. McKinley's name will go down with those of Washington and Lincoln."

DEATH OF DR. McKIM.

Closing of the Career of a Highly Respected Citizen.

Dr. Samuel A. H. McKim died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home, No. 25 A street southeast, after an illness that had confined him to his home for about two years. He was stricken with paralysis about two years ago, since which time he had been an invalid. His funeral will take place from his late home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Farnsworth of Baltimore will officiate and the interment will be at Congressional cemetery. Dr. McKim was seventy-four years of age, and had practiced his profession in this city for nearly fifty years.

Dr. McKim's parents came to this city from England in 1804 and were married from England in 1804 and were married here in 1815. They moved to Massachusetts, where their son Samuel was born in 1826. Eighteen years later they returned to this city, when the father was appointed paymaster at the marine barracks. The son was sent to Columbian University, from where he graduated in 1852. He entered upon the practice of his profession soon after he graduated. When President Lincoln called for volunteers in 1861 Dr. McKim was one of the first to respond. soon after he graduated. When President Lincoln called for volunteers in 1861 Dr. McKim was one of the first to respond. He organized a company and was mustered in as captain. During his service he was stationed at the Benning bridge. Dr. McKim was the first surgeon appointed to do duty in connection with the police department. This position he held for more than twenty-five years. About ten years ago he was appointed surgeon of the 3d Battalion, District of Columbia National Guard, and in June, 1893, he served in a similar capacity in the 1st Regiment, with the rank of captain. Dr. McKim's first wife was Miss Caroline Gibbs of Norwich, N. Y. Miss Eva Simpson of England, whom he married afterward, is still living. Three children of the first wife and one of the second survive their father. The deceased was a member of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association, was connected with Farraguit Post, G. A. R., and was prominent in Odd Fellow circles. For several years he was surgeon of the Baltimore and Ohlo Railroad Company. Two brothers of the deceased live in Massachusetts. One of them is Judge J. W. McKim of the Boston probate court.

800 6th street northwest, died suddenly yes done for him. The police took charge of his body and removed it to the morgue. Acting Coroner Giazebrook gave a certifi-cate of death from natural causes. Murphy was a native of Ireland, but had lived in here he lived in Boston, where several children now reside. A sister, Mrs. Dennis Kirby, lives at 1100 Greenmount avenue, Baltimore. A nephew of the deceased is a sergeant of police in Baltimore. Relatives of the dead man have been notified, and it is expected that they will come here and arrange for the burial of the body.

MADE ACTING LIEUTENANT.

Sergeant Wm. W. Jordan of the Second Precinct Promoted. Sergt. William W. Jordan of the second police precinct, was promoted this afterncon by the Commissioners. He was made acting lieutenant. The position of acting lleutenant is a new one, so far as an office being designated by the Commissioners is concerned. Heretofore, during the absence of a lieutenant, a sergeant in the particular precinct, usually the senior sergeant was designated by the major to act in his place. The action of the Commissioners to day revives the rumor that was circulated place. The action of the commissioners today revives the rumor that was circulated some time ago to the effect that one or more lieutenants would be reduced or retired. It was rumored this afternoon that Sergt. Jordan will soon be made a full lieutenant and that he will take the place of one of the older lieutenants. Other changes, it is rumored, will also be made.

Acting Lieut. Jordan received the promotion on the recommendation of Maj. Sylvester, who has watched his conduct as an officer during the time of his connection with the force. He was selected for the promotion because of his efficiency. He was born in Iowa March 17, 1853, and his early life was spent in Indiana. After serving in the artillery and infantry, he came to this city, and was appointed a member of the police force July 2, 1885. At the time of his appointment he was assigned to duty in the sixth precinct, where he received his early training under Lieut. John F. Kelly. Later he performed duty under Lieut. Amiss in the first precinct, and it was while serving training under Lieut. John F. Kelly. Later he performed duty under Lieut. Amiss in the first precinct, and it was while serving in this precinct that he was promoted. He served at the White House for some time as the officer in charge of the police squad. Afterward he was sent to the second pre-cinct for duty.

In Memoriam.

COOPER. In loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister, MARY ELIZABETH COOPER, who departed this life eight years ago today—July 27, 1802. Eight years have passed, and still we miss her; Friends may think the wound is healed. But they little know the sorrow That lies within our hearts concenled.

WINTER. In memory of PREDERICE WINTER, who died one year ago today—July 27, 1899.

We loved you when you were here, And your smiles were ours. We saw that smile depart. And then we loved you most. BY HER GRANDDAUGHTER LAURA.
